

Paid Summer Internship Opportunity

Making Invisible Histories Visible (MIHV) Program
May 28 through July 2, 2025, in Omaha, Nebraska
Pay $17.00 an hour.

Hours 7:15 to 11:45 a.m. Weekdays

In addition, you will be paid for up to 10 hours of research time in the spring to gain an understanding of the MIHV topic area.

Join us to work with rising 9th graders and Omaha Public School social teachers to research and present work on the Trans-Mississippi Exposition held in Omaha in 1898. The project will include working with local experts and taking field trips to view the site and uncover primary resources from the event. College students will work with the students and teachers to create final projects and social studies curriculum that will share the Exposition's architecture, innovations, cultural exhibits and representation and its legacy in Omaha's development.

We are looking for students who have a strong interest in history, demonstrated skills in research and writing, and excellent organizational skills.

Apply online at <https://omaha.schoolspring.com/> under position Paraprofessional, Instructional (Temporary Part Time) - Summer Bridge MIHV Program
