

Know means recording the things you already know about your subject. Consider if you already have a source to support this knowledge.

Know

Want to Know means recording the answers, facts, types of evidence you need to find

Want to Know

Learned means recording the key detail you found and where you found it.

Learned