

UNO + OAYO

Chamber Music Institute 2025

The Chamber Music Institute is an intensive five-day small ensemble experience for advanced high school players (woodwinds, brass, strings, percussion, and voice). Groups will be coached, and some may be joined, by professional musicians and educators.

Qualifications:

Please visit the website for specific instrument qualifications and audition requirements. Students who are currently members of the OAYO Youth Symphony (YS) do not need to prepare an audition but must complete the application paperwork.

Ages:

Students completing grades 9-12 by June 1, 2025, including graduating seniors.

Cost:

Voluntary Tiered pricing structure. True cost of the program is $200 per student. Selected students will select a payment of $200, $175, $150, or $100 after notification of selection.

Questions:

Please contact Sophia Potter, Director of Chamber Music Ensemble Programming, spotter@unomaha.edu
