

NATIONAL STUDENT EMPLOYMENT WEEK!

National Student Employment Week (NSEW) is recognized by the National Student Employment Association (NSEA) annually during the second week of April. This year NSEW was April 8-12, 2024. The week is dedicated to show appreciation for our student employees and their contributions to the UNO community! The week has three main purposes:

- Appreciate and recognize our current student employees and their contributions to the UNO community
- Thank on campus employers for their part in supporting students in these critical roles for the university
- Build awareness of student employment opportunities and the importance they play on our campus

THREE AWARD WINNERS!

Awards were presented at the Maverick Student Employment Awards Banquet on April 8th, 2024.

Undergraduate Student Employee of the Year

Emily Erickson, Tutor;
Foreign Language and Literature

Graduate Student Employee of the Year

Karla Zavala, Graduate Assistant;
Grace Abbott School of Social Work

Student Employee Team of the Year

Creative Production Lab Team,
Criss Library

Highlights

-84 students, faculty, and staff attended the MSE Awards Banquet

-Our campus Undergraduate and Graduate winners were submitted to the Midwest Association of Student Employment Administrators (MASEA) Regional Awards

-Karla Zavala, Graduate Assistant gave a keynote address on the student employment experience at the MSE Awards Banquet

-Hakim Lotoro, Student Body President gave a welcome address on the impact that student employees have on campus

-Yard signs were put up around campus to recognize NSEW

-A banner was displayed in the Milo Bail Student Center to recognize NSEW

-A list of recognition ideas were provided to employers on campus and they were encouraged to recognize their employees during the week

-Appreciation gifts were provided at the MSE Banquet, which included a travel bag, notebook, pen, and lapel pin.

Congratulations to all the Nominees for the MSE Awards!

11 nominees for Undergraduate Student Employee of the Year

3 nominees for Graduate Student Employee of the Year

5 nominees for Student Employee Team of the Year

19 nominations total!

In addition to the physical awards, winners also received a monetary award funded by the Office of the Chancellor.